

Section 122 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984

- 1) It shall be the duty of every local authority upon whom functions are conferred by or under this Act, so to exercise the functions conferred on them by this Act as (so far as practicable having regard to the matters specified in sub-section (2) below) to secure the expeditious convenient and safe movement of vehicular and other traffic (including pedestrians) and the provision of suitable and adequate parking facilities on and off the highway.
- 2) The matters referred to in sub-section (1) above, as being specified in this sub-section are:
 - a) The desirability of securing and maintaining reasonable access to premises;
 - b) The effect on the amenities of any locality affected and (without prejudice to the generality of this paragraph) the importance of regulating and restricting the use of roads by heavy commercial vehicles, so as to preserve or improve the amenities of the areas through which the roads run;
 - c) The strategy prepared under Section 80 of the Environment Act 1995 (national air quality strategy);
 - d) The importance of facilitating the passage of public service vehicles and of securing the safety and convenience of persons using or desiring to use such vehicles; and
 - e) Any other matters appearing to ...the local authority... to be relevant.
