Constituency Work and Local Issues

Actively involved in a number of community groups within the Denton West Ward, the library, two community centres, outdoor activity groups, Friends groups, hosting an annual Christmas gathering for senior citizens.

Members Advice Surgeries

Councillor Surgeries are held weekly at one of the community centres, local residents are aware of when and where they can speak to us directly as well as us being available online or by telephone.

Training and Development

Attended Licencing training.

Achievements during the Year

Hosting, for the first time, a very successful St Georges Day event together with Councillor colleagues and other community groups.

Setting up the Friends of Ladbroke Wood group, which will benefit an area of natural beauty and will involve many members of the community.

Ongoing work with the hospital to strive to enhance the patient experiences.

Addressing and assisting people with a large variance of issues, environmental, personal, etc.

Any other comments

I am involved with people each and every day on a considerable range of topics and always do my best to assist.
